“ Martha was my Aunt, but she was more like an older sister to me. She helped make my wedding gown back in 1961. One Christmas she took my brothers and me on the train from Norristown to Philadelphia to see The Wannemakers Department store decorations . Martha also came to our house to help my mother. We shared many good times and delicious meals with her. One day , I will meet her in heaven. My prayers are with each one of you. Love, Joan Hayman and family.

“ My parents, Kenny and Sandy Bealer and I lived in Dutch and Martha's in-law house on their farm. It was wonderful! Everything a little girl would love; wide windowsills to sit in and read, a beautiful stone fireplace in the living room and a large, but cozy kitchen. Best of all, it was a farm with animals!! I loved all the kittens and ducks, but my favorite was a beautiful brown and white cow I befriended and called Bun Bun. At the heart of it all was Martha. She was such a wonderful kind hearted lady. I took piano lessons at school, but didn't have my own piano at home so she would let me come over to her house to practice and often even take time to help me. She was a good cook who would share her treats. I remember at Christmas 🎄 time I was over having Christmas Cookies. She was always very kind and I missed her and her family very much when we moved. I was always happy to see her over the years when we ran into each other. I would see her often in later years at Saville's Restaurant and it would brighten my day, because she always seemed genuinely happy to see me too. I wish her family comfort and peace. I have no doubt she is with the Angels. Love and Blessings to her family❤️🙏,
