PS

What a great sister, mother, grandmother, wife and friend she was! I have so many fond memories of growing up in her home. Sis taught me to crochet, garden, stock my pantry and how to give and do for others. I didn't realize how much influence she had in my life until I made a family and home of my own. We prayed just days before she passed, for Jesus to be her savior. So although I'm sad that for a time we won't see each other, I look forward to spending eternity with her!!!

My sister was a wonderful woman and a great big sister. She was always there for everyone and had a big heart. I will always cherish the time I had with her, especially those last days. I think about all those times talking about everything under the sun over a cup of coffee in her kitchen. She was a hard worker and great mother & wife. She loved her family and friends and showed it in all she did for them. Life will never be same without her in it. I will miss her so much. Her passing makes me realize how precious life is and to make each day count...to love each other and spend time with our loved ones while we can. I love you Mary...one day we will all be together again.

Mary you are missed. You are the bravest woman that I know and you gave a great fight - 14 months and 20 days from the day of surgery for pancreatic cancer. You fought every day and I know you did not want to go but God wanted you! So we will grieve but know that I am honored to have been your friend for more than 40 years. Rest in peace my friend. The telephone is not ringing. Wish there were a line directly to you.

*I know you will be watching over your family and Cocoa. SoLong!

I'm going to miss Aunt Mary... She was a strong woman and brave to fight for as long as she did.... It will be hard to think a strong woman has gone to be with God now.... I will always remember the picnics that she use to have every summer when I was a kid growing up.... They were a blast and a half and Wish I could go back to that time.... That time was fun and carefree and being able to see the whole family all together. I will always cherish her and miss her so much.... I will always love you!!!!
