“ My deepest sympathies to Mary's family. I only just found out that Mary passed. I had the pleasure of working with Mary on the Board of Directors at the National Conference of CPA Practitioners. Mary was so talented. We will miss her terribly.

“ *I only met Mary recently when I joined the Board of NCCPAP. I'm sorry that I didn't have the opportunity to get to know Mary better as we share a lot in common starting with I grew up in the town next to Stoughton MA.

“ Unfortunately, I did not make it to Mary Duff's service yesterday. Mary and I met as college freshmen. I only made it through The University of Scranton because of Mary. I had difficulty adjusting to college life. My roommate spent all her time with her boyfriend, and I was too awkward and shy to branch out and find friends on my own. I heard later she said she felt sorry for me. My college experience changed when she knocked on my dorm room door and invited me to go out with her and her friends. She was intuitive, empathetic, and kind.

From that moment on, Mary made the world right for me. I tagged along to off-campus parties, movie nights, dances, Oscars (the age-indifferent bar on the corner for those not in the know), volunteered and participated in fundraisers, Block Parties, and countless more events. She was up for anything and everything, and I was happy to go on that ride with her. We were in a movie together! "Playing for Keeps" - Only worth the watch if you were to forward to the party scenes to see all the Scranton undergrads relive that moment in time.

I am thankful we remained in touch throughout our years post-Scranton. That summer we shared a house in Avalon. The numerous dinners, BBQs, reunions, weddings, and ... funerals. I am thankful she became friends with my husband; my son cannot remember when he did not know her. Her infectious smile. That laugh. Her enthusiasm for life. I am thankful for her knock on my door so many years ago and for her enduring presence in my life. You will forever be in my thoughts and in my heart. I will miss you, my friend.
