“ Although I didn't know Mary well I had the pleasure of meeting her at a friends Birthday Dinner that she attended with her sissy Joyce. I worked with Joyce at SEI and she often talked about Mary her best friend. Joyce my heart goes out to you and your family I know how much you loved your sister. Now she is your family's special guardian angel. Prayers and love to all. Alicia P.S. The Memorial Video was beautiful.

“ SWEET REMEMBRANCES Let Fate do her worst; there are relics of joy. Bright dreams of the past, which she cannot destroy; And which come in the night-time of sorrow and care, And bring back the features that joy used to wear; Long, long be my heart with such memories filled; Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled, You may break, you may shatter the vase, if you will, But the scent of the roses will hang round it still.

“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be. So He put His arms around you and whispered "come to me." With tearful eyes we watched you, and saw you pass away. Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.

“ When I was a kid Roy and Jim practically lived at our house because they were friends with my brother Chuck(Chug). I remember when Roy first brought Mary around. I thought she was the cutest thing ever. She was just adorable with her dimples, and great smile. I am so sorry to hear about her illness and death. Sometimes you just can't figure out "why" things these happen. I am very sorry for you all.

“ God's Promise God never promised a life without pain, Laughter without tears or sun without rain. But He did promise strength for the day, Comfort for the tears and the light for the way, And for all who believe In His Heaven above He rewards their faith In His everlasting love.
