“ Mary was an encourager. She had walked through plenty of valleys but she still saw the glass as half full, rather than empty. She set her own agenda on many things, to reach out to the lonely and hurting. I believe she heard a "Well done!" as she was welcomed to her eternal home.

“Mary had a heart for others. When she was in better health a few years back, she often mentioned to me that she was helping this neighbor or that neighbor in her apartment complex. She was an encouragement to our church family with a ready smile and her ministry of faithfully sending greeting cards for birthdays and other occasions to many people in our congregation, year after year. I regret that circumstances prevent me from attending her funeral. I am fully confident that Mary is in heaven with her Savior and is now free from pain and health issues. My condolences to her family.

“Aunt Mary was so kind and so energetic! She was always in the kitchen at every party and picnic, making food, washing dishes, helping with everything. We had a lot of good times talking in Nan's kitchen.

My favorite memory is from one of the parties: Aunt Mary, Aunt Doris, and Nan were sitting on the couch giggling like kids. I don't know what they were talking about, but that's the hardest I'd ever seen Nan laugh. It still makes me smile every time I remember it.

“Aunt Mary was a hoot! I always loved the stories she told. One that sticks out: When she was in her 60's she had a bit of a belly on her. She was stopped and asked how far along she was. She was tickled pink that someone thought she looked young enough to be pregnant!

She was so thoughtful, never missing a birthday or a holiday. She was always smiling and could talk a blue streak. We will miss you!

“ Mary was quite possibly the most thoughtful person i knew. She never forgot a birthday or anniversary and blessed so many of us with her prayer support. She always remembered everyone's name and life story no matter how long or how short she knew them! She was selfless in thinking of others first and always willing to talk to anyone anywhere!
