“ Dear Bonnie, Jack, Bob & Jim, I am very sorry to hear about your Mom's passing and have been aware of her declining health. I remember playing at your house when we were very young and always thought your Mom was an extremely nice person. She visited us with my Mom in Ohio once and we had a wonderful time. Trust in the Lord for all the strength and courage you need. Love, Jim Valletta

“ Nanny, I'm going to really miss you! I'm sorry I could not make it down before you were taken home to your creator. I wasn't aware that you were in such distress and were on your way home. Because nanny had I known the facts I would have been by your side!! God knows that I would have been there!! I did not know! I love you!!! I only wish someone would have told me that you were leaving me. You know nasny I would have been there!!
