“Mrs. Somers was a neighbor of mine growing up. I remember her singing Dion Warwick on a summer day driving me somewhere. Her voice reflected her inner beauty. When my father died when I was 17 one of the only things that gave me hope was her face at our door with this delicious chicken dinner. Sue was one of those people that give you lasting peace.”

“Mrs Somers was my second mom growing up. I think I spend half my childhood in the Somers's house. I wouldn't be who I am today. Thank you for being such a big part of my life. You will be missed.”
