“ I'm at a lost of words for I can't get over the shock of you no longer being here for Breanna Jessica n the rest of the family. N to continue our special deep bond that nobody was ever ever to break or ruin for us. For I still remember when Kimmy called me n told me that someone wanted to meet me so I went down to the spring city hotel bar where she was working n there you sat at the bar with Timmy. I can still see you now, you were wearing a blue turquoise muscle shirt, cut off blue jean shorts white socks n sneakers n your hair was still long not too long though just sweeping right above your shoulders. N that was the beginning of our deep deep strong loving bond that always kept us returning to each other no matter u always found time for me thank you. When I got the call Friday saying you passed I was in shock n still am in shock. For when you left , u took a piece of me with u, Matthew. You n I had our ups n downs more ups than downs, n we out of our love created a wonderful beautiful most talented first born child of yours, second for me, Breanna aka Little Fish as all your friends nicknamed her cuz they all said that she would have been named Matt Jr if she was a he cuz she's your twin. Well I'm very very happy that she turned out to look like her daddy, she's one heck of a beautiful young woman you ought to be very proud of her. So for me Matthew, please from the skies above always protect n keep our daughter safe, protected out of all harmsway, n try to never let her be hurt since all this hurt she's feeling now from lossing you. I'm already getting visits from you in my dreams so I know that you've made it to the next life already so tell pop n my brother I said hello. I loved you then now always n for infinity with all my heart no matter what. N thank you for letting your presence be felt all around me as well I hope that I'm able to always feel your presence my forever love I love you forever, Matthew. Christina. Xoxoxo God bless
