“ Dear Kendra Family, I worked with Matt at Advancing Eyecare/Lombart Instrument and am so happy that I was lucky enough to know him. He was an absolutely amazing person! He was always professional, friendly, resourceful, engaging, so smart and witty, and such a go-getter! There was never any question that he would be a tremendous success here. I truly enjoyed anytime our paths crossed and will miss him greatly. Our whole company is so very sorry for the loss of this wonderful man. We will miss him so much. No one can know the sorrow and loss you, his dearest loved ones, are experiencing, but I pray that somehow, God shows up in this in unexpected and awe-inspiring ways to comfort you uniquely. May he give you hope that never fades and the continual sense that he is with you always. Warmly, Chrissie Pattison

“ Barbara, Mart and Eric, there are no words! You are all in my thoughts and prayers at this very sad time. So glad I had the pleasure of meeting Matt as a toddler, running around Dr. Marlowe's office, waiting for a checkup, as a young teen and as the fine young man he became. Aunt Janet kept me informed of Matt and Eric's accomplishment so I feel like their nephews to me also. God Bless, Clare Keough💙

“ Matt was special ❤️. Matt would light up a room especially our tailgates always helping and sharing his thoughts. He was my knight in shining armor always making sure I would get through the mobs of eagles fans entering the stadium.
Thank you Barb & Marty for allowing me to be a part of his short life.
