“ I had the privilege of working with Matt for only about a year, but he was someone you only needed to know for a minute to realize he was a wonderful person. Though he led his approach to life with his heart & his humor, he was also a steadying presence even on the most hectic of days, as he worked hard in a calm & quiet way. I admired his way of being able to strike up a conversation with anyone! He was incredibly & uniquely kind. That's what made him stand out the most. Matt wasn't just nice to people if they so happened to cross his path. No. He also reached out to people with kindness. He was thoughtful, protective & generous toward me every time I saw him. The days I worked with him were always the better days. It feels like we lost an angel on Earth last week, but he left behind a lasting impression that will forever stay with me & so many people. I am grateful to have known him.

“ Matt was such a kind man. My husband would take him to work when they worked the same schedules and he enjoyed working with him. He always had such nice things to say about what a hard worker he was and never complained. When we adopted our dog he bought the dog a squeaky toy because that was how kind he was. Please know that he will never be forgotten and that a piece of him will always be with my husband Scott. ”
