“ I am truly at a lost for words Ant Maureen. I can't believe this is truly happening. One of the most treasured memories I have of you is when you lived down in Florida and we used to drive from Ocala to visit you and everyone in Jacksonville, Florida. I always knew we were close to ur house because of the giant airplane before we got to ur road and house. The last time I got to see you was when Nana passed away and you came to help get everything in order for her. I got to tell you then that I loved you and I truly do. I know I haven't been in the best contact or the best nephew but I always loved you and cherished everytime I got to see you when I was younger. I love you n truly will miss you. I know your in a better place but wish u could be with us still just so I could tell u in person that I luv you. Say hello to Nana n poppy for me and may you rest in peace because heaven definitely gained a great angel. Miss u n luv u a lot.
