Mike was always helping others and always saving others since he was very young. He and his siblings saved a man from a tractor accident back in the day. He continued on by help leading fundraisers for people with terminal illnesses and their families this man is a hard act to follow. Your cookouts were the best buddy I always went home with laughing cramps I will miss you like no other you showed me a lot and I looked up to you rest in peace my friend I will never forget you!!!
