“ Mike was a unique & wonderful man. He could relate to anyone, at any level. The "cousins"--Jack, Randy, & I--had many fantastic fishing, golfing trips & other adventures with Mike. He will be missed but he left us with a repository of great memories. RIP our gentle friend!

Mike and I were the best of friends for 42 years. A part of me went with him in his passing. I relish the memories of all the time we spent together---golfing, hunting and especially the many many fishing trips (from within 127 miles of the North Pole in the Arctic and on to Alaska, British Columbia, N. W. territories, Yukon Territory, Manitoba, Ontario, Mexico and Costa Rica). We made at least 40 trips to Ontario alone!! He was my business mentor aside from being my best friend. Grief is the last act of love we can give to those we loved. Where there is deep grief, there was deep love. My family loved him also along with my cousins. I'm sure going to miss him and his weekly phone calls!!

I was very fortunate to meet Mike through my dad. I also was on a few fishing trips with the cousins and Mike. So many good times and great wine, but most of all I loved the way Mike would give my Dad a hard time and make us all laugh. My family really loved Mike, we really will miss him! !

The last thing I would like to say to his family and friends is, that years ago my dad asked Mike what's the best gift he could give to his Grandson ( my child) Mike replied " Jack, give him an education. So my Dad put my son through of 4 years of prep school to give him the best chance of a successful future. .. great advice from a great man.

Thank you Mike!!!

There are few adjectives that can properly describe what a wonderful person Mike was. I consider myself privileged to have called him a friend. He was nonnegotiable when it came to integrity. He once said that honesty was the most important word in the dictionary. Whether giving business advice or the more important art of fishing, he was almost always spot on.
