“ My condolences to the family, friends and loved ones of Michele Grant. It seems as if our loved ones are with us for such a short period of time. We long for the promises that God's word the Bible makes, "the meek shall inherit the earth and reside forever upon it."- Psalm 37:29. May you find comfort at this time as you draw close to the "God of all comfort" who tells us that if we draw close to Him, He will draw close to us- Psalm 55:22. It is my hopes that these words may prove to encourage you at this time. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown Neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com

“ Wayne, We were so very saddened to hear about Michelle. We said goodbye to her in our own way and will very much miss her love for life and for others. She is a very special soul. Our Mali loved her and wanted to bring her a cheeseburger the other morning on her way out to school in hopes it would make her feel better (she's only 5!). I told her that Michelle might want it for dinner instead! We told her that Michelle is an angel with wings now instead of just being an angel, which is what she was... Mali is going to send a balloon up to heaven for her with a picture she drew. If you need anything, please don't hesitate for we are right next door. Godbless..

“ Michele, In the time we have known you, your love for your Saviour and your zealous testimony have inspired your doctors, nurses, family, friends, and so many strangers! Your wit and smile were contagious! You lived your life to the fullest. But nothing compares to the fullness and joy you are experiencing in Heaven with the Lord! We will miss you and never forget you. We will meet again in Heaven! Love you!! Rick, Karen, Becky and Josh

“ Sissy: You have been, for 35 years, and will always be, a big part of who I am. Our journies together will be passed down to my son and he will learn what you have taught me. You have always been an angel but now have wings. Fly Sissy. Fly as far and as high as freedom will take you. I Love You! Nina

“ There is no one that I know who lived their life as full as Michelle. She captured every moment long before her illness, and certainly lived bravely through her last year doing just the same and was an inspiration to all of us. Her gift to us was knowing someone who loved everyone and welcomed every one to everything. Many of us became friends and cohorts due to her social organizing and fun and loving attitude. I am blessed to have had her for a dear friend and my family also. She had a soft spot for my brother (mentally disabled), and treated him so kindly. Visited my dad when he was sick as "Marilyn Monroe" to give him on of his last good laughs. I will always remember our girls nites, girl power, and days filled with laughter at the mountain house and beach. Michele, I will always have a piece of you alive tucked in my heart until I see you again, my dear friend. Love Sooz
