“ My path first crossed with Michelle’s on the very first day of high school. Being on the quiet side, I worried about whether I would have someone to sit with at lunch among all the new, unfamiliar faces. Thankfully, as I struggled to open my locker before heading to lunch, I heard a cheerful voice call out from a few lockers down asking if I was stuck with the dreaded first lunch too and inviting me to sit with her. I am so thankful for Michelle’s friendship and all the fun we had throughout high school. Fast forward a few years, and our paths crossed again at our 20th high school reunion. Once again that warm smile greeted me, and my husband Josh and I enjoyed sharing laughs and memories with her and her husband Steve at our reunion. We discovered that we still had a lot in common with having children the same age and our faith. To know Michelle meant you knew her family too. I loved spending time with her fun-loving family in high school and will be praying for comfort and peace in the midst of grief for all those who knew and loved her. Although her life was way too short, Michelle made the most of her days because she lived a life that reflected her values - her faith in God and her love of family. With her bubbly, outgoing personality and bright smile no matter what her circumstances, she made everyone feel like family and reflected God’s light and love in this world. I can’t help but think that she is a part of heaven’s hospitality committee waiting to welcome us one day. Michelle will be dearly remembered and missed.

“ Sweet Michelle, how you will be missed. I had the privilege of teaching your sons in pre-school and so much enjoyed seeing you each day as part of the routine. My prayers will now shift to your family as they walk the road of grief. I am so thankful for you and all the goodness you shared with the world.

“ Oh my Michelle.... You are the Bravest and the Most Beautiful Child of God that I have ever known. I will always cherish the words you spoke to us as a family the day before you left... As sick as you were... You sat us down and talked to us giving us strength to get through the loss of you. It was truly amazing what you did and how you choose to prepare us. That evening you also spoke to your boys in the same Angelic way 🙏🙏🙏 You are such an inspiration to all of us.

I know you are in heaven with that beautiful smile on your face... That smile that was always there whenever you opened your eyes.... I Love You Michelle 💕🙏🙏 I know you will be a busy little Angel 🙏

“ I enjoyed this past summer 2018 together u10 tournament baseball, I helped coach Matt and all the other boys, talking to Michelle behind the backstop during games, she clearly enjoyed watching Matty-"ice" perform, striking out batters, leadoff hitter, a baseball mom I got to know...I am glad to have the brief time to get to know her...I enjoyed the experience...

“ I pray that I may be blessed with your courage and strength during my treatment. When I was first diagnosed both you and Shanah came to my home to comfort me. You set on my couch and you held my hand and said “Sharon I can feel it! You are going to beat this” I will promise you that I will fight twice as hard for both of us! You will be in heaven cheering me on every step of the way! Rest easy Michelle! It’s time to pass the fight on to me now! It’s time for you to Rest In Peace!

“ Michelle will be deeply missed 😞 she loved Bingo and basket Raffles and our neighborhood cookie swap. Even when she felt ill she was always with a smile on her face and keeping it positive for her boys. You couldn’t ask for a better friend or neighbor. In the end we chatted about what we thought heaven was and where you go , random things around the house, our boys being crazy, and of all things how to clean out the air ducts! she was never one to be a downer right down to the end. She loved her boys fiercely, she was strong and she never gave up. I hope heaven was all she prayed it would be and that she can be at peace now with the angels 💔😞

She was truly a blessing!!! I met her at NHUMC Women's retreat. She gave such a wonderful speech. I truly admired her - she was such an inspiration. All that she was going through - but with such a great attitude. I will miss her presence at the next retreat. I saw her again at Saville's with her adorable boys and her Mom and Aunt. They talked about buying a house together and I was so excited for her. I asked how she was doing and she said the doctors did not give her good news, but that she was leaving it in God's hands. My heart aches for her whole family as they lost a true gem. What an awesome lady!!! She is surely going to be one of the best angels up there. God Bless you Michelle and Prayers to your surviving family who have a rough road ahead without you.
