“ I had a conspiracy theory when I was inpatient that Mikayla was there at the same time. I was set on believing that throughout the longevity of my time there. When I saw her out and about in Royersford, I asked her if she was at Horsham when I was there. I recall her telling me she had just gotten out of rehab, and I was so proud of her. It was a stupid little "conspiracy", but it was a funny memory. I had a dream about a couple weeks ago that we had hung out. I had never hung out with her before, so I had been fixing to see od we could in the near future. But it was too late. Also, my boyfriend Brandyn Caruth has this to say: I met you and we were kids we were best friends you helped me through a lot of my problems and it was a lot of fun to hang out with you I hope everything's okay up there I'm going to miss you a lot everyone's going to miss you a lot I'll think of you always.
