“ I'd visit Mildred with lunch many times the summer of 2011. I was gathering from her information about the family for my genealogy. I'd bring lunch and we'd sit at the kitchen table and eat and talk about the past. Many times when I'd arrive she'd be sitting out in her yard reading her Bible. My father and Mildred were brother and sister. Besides my father, Mildred has one other surviving sibling who lives in the mountains. I'm so sorry I missed her funeral. I just learned today that she had passed.

“ Mom Mom,

As I prepare to say goodbye to you tomorrow for the final time just know that I will always love you. You were always like a mother to me and I loved spending time with you and Pop Pop, especially when I worked in Phoenixville and got snowed in with you guys. Towards the end when you would get mad because I had to feed you and you would say why do you have to feed me like a baby. Well, it was my turn to take care of you like you had always done for me all my life except I don't think I did near what you ever did for me.

Thank you for all your guidance and love over the years. You will always be in my heart ❤️ and I love you ever so much. May you find peace now with Pop Pop and Dad and our Heavenly Father above.

*Love you always,
Brenda*

“ After all the time spent at your house with pop pop and you, its hard to say goodbye after all that we have been through lately. This passing is a blessing though as the pain and suffering is finally over for you. I will miss all the alone time we had and all the stories of the good life you had. I am sure pop pop was waiting patiently for you and finally you two will meet again. I love and miss you already, but am so happy you finally rest. Keep your ever watchful eye over me, as we all know I need it.

I love you dearly,

Duke
