“ Dear Ones,
Jerry and I send you our deepest sympathies.
Millie was such a bright spirit. And a great story-teller. She delighted us with tales of growing up. A favorite is how she and her sister would take turns --one ironing, while the other read aloud. With her sweet handmade cards she inspired me to make my own. They never measured up to hers but she applauded and encouraged my efforts.
We shared a love for holidays and exchanged cards for most every one (except maybe Groundhog Day).
And we both enjoyed "snail mail"...so would write notes and letters as well. Hers were always upbeat and sprinkled with wry humor.
We will miss her friendship.
Hugging you in our hearts.
Love,
Eileen and Jerry too
