“ Minerva and I played and grew up together as kids and kept in touch over the years. She loved her family so much and I am so sorry for your loss. I am deeply shocked when I tried twice to call her today. She was a wonderful person and a real lady. I will miss her immensely. Growing up - So many memories of Priscilla, Janice, her Mother and Father and of course her beloved children whom I never met but she never stopped talking about. Minerva and Gene are once again together forever. God bless them both.

“ For 36 years the Andrews and your family have been part of our extended family. Your Mom was really special to all of us! We can't imagine our family or the church without her. She was the "glue" of your family. Now you will have to call on the strength she has given you to hold the family together. We are here in the next few weeks, months or whatever, if you need us!
