“ I was heartbroken to hear of her passing. I worked with her at St Joe's, and I would love giving report to her in the morning....sometimes greeted with dry humor that I love! I will miss her awesome personality and witty humor. My heart goes out to all her family and friends!!

“ The first time i meet Nancy was at her place at wilson town house. Nancy and Troy went out that night . I whached Tab and Josh. I got the kids to help me clean the house like playing a game.they put things up in there rooms . Whashing dlshes, floors , living room. Lol. When Nancy got home her eyes almost popped out . It was funny seeing her with a surprise face. The best part is the next day she called me and wanted to know where this was and that was.i said hell i dont know. It took her a few days to find things. Nancy and i did alot of things together if it was shopping for this or that. This is crushing me just writting this . The thing i will treasure is the blanket she mad for my wedding. With the lords prayer around on the end of each corner . I recently gave it back to her for the memorys and the time she put into making it. She cryed and said i worked my ass off to finish it wedding your wedding. Nancy also helped me gey my first job working at seafood shanty west lawn thats where i meet amazing weman . IM TELLING YOU ALL THIS. THIS WOMAN WAS MORE THEN A SISTER IN LAW MORE THEN A FRIEND. SHE WAS A WOMAN THAT BEET EVERY OTHER WOMAN ON EARTH. FROM DOWN DEEP IN MY HEART I WILL MISS YOU AND LOVE YOU UNTIL I SEE YOU AGAIN. OH NANCY DONT FORGET THAT CUP OF PUSH IN THE MORNING AND THAT SMOKE THAT MADE YOU FLY . NOW YOUR FLYING HIGH AGAIN .

“ So sorry to hear of Nancy's passing. I worked with her at St Joe's. I can't count the times her natural empathy and dry humor got me through the shift. RIP Nancy. I will remember you.
