“ Nick was a great coworker and friend when I worked for a couple years at a local Collegeville factory. Much like myself, he had a fine appreciation for old cars and the 1950s styles. I was happy to give him a classic print of Marilyn Monroe I had that was easily fifty years old, knowing he would appreciate it more than I. I had not heard from him in quite awhile, but he messaged me last week and promised to stop by with his dog. It's beyond sad to know he will not be doing so. Hopefully you can drive your old '55 Chevy in the sky my friend. -Ben. H. Webb Creamery, PA
