

Norman R. Hallman

December 30, 1954 - April 20, 2013

Norman R. Hallman Jr., age 58, husband of Deborah A. (Moses) Hallman, of Phoenixville, passed away on Saturday, April 20, 2013 in the Seasons Hospice, Phoenixville. Born in Phoenixville, PA, he was a son of the late Norman R. Sr. and Betty (Sonnen) Hallman. Mr. Hallman was a graduate of Phoenixville High School. He owned and operated the Norm Hallman Florist in Phoenixville for 12 years, and had worked for Genuardi's for 17 years. He enjoyed vacationing each year with his wife in Ocean City, NJ, and loved spending time with his three granddaughters. In addition to his wife, Mr. Hallman is survived by one daughter, Megan Hallman of Royersford, PA; one son, Gerald, husband of Dana Schwartz of Chester Springs, PA; one sister, Gwen, wife of Richard Hoy of Reading; three grandchildren, Brianna Schwartz, Kylie Hallman, and Keira Serina; and two nephews, David, husband of Myra Hoy of Reading, PA and Ricky, husband of Bethann Hoy of Reading, PA. He was preceded in death by one brother, Ross R. Hallman. Relatives and friends are invited to attend his memorial service at the Campbell-Ennis-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., 610 Main Street, Phoenixville, PA on Thursday, April 25, 2013 at 11:00 AM. Officiating will be the Rev. Linda S. Gruber. Friends will be received at the funeral home on Thursday from 9:00-11:00 AM. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his name to the Cancer Center at Phoenixville Hospital, 824 Main Street, Suite 101, Phoenixville, PA 19460 or to the Heartland Hospice, 460 Norristown Road, Suite 101, Blue Bell, PA 19422. “ Norman was a good guy with a great sense of humor. I worked with him at Genuardis over the years. The last few days I have thought about some of the funny things he said, and did. Norman came across to me as a guy who knew how to take things in life in proper perspective. I will miss him and glad to have had the opportunity to know him. He is in a better place now.....
