“ There will never be another Patti. Grade school. High school. Meeting up again with the girls through Church and Youth group. She made every one of us smile and feel as if you were the most important person in her life. Her daughters ~ her life. Successful. Talented. The lights of her life. As I said earlier ~ she was, is and always will be a St. Joe's/ Camden girl. How fortunate to have her in our lives.

“ Pattie was definitely the funniest person I knew. Every time we were together we couldn't stop laughing. She had the best expressions ever. I called her Becky and she called me Drita. She fiercely loved her daughters. They meant everything to her. There's nothing she wouldn't of given them. Her daughter Alex and my daughter Shana met while ice skating and became the closet of friends. More like sisters. She was extremely smart. A great cook. No one loved a bargain more than Pattie. Going with her to the Berlin mart was a adventure. She always had your back. One time over the Xmas holiday the skating rink was decorated with all Xmas stuff. We are Jewish. Pattie asked them to please put up some decorations for my daughter. They said no. The next day Pattie showed up with a menorah and presents wrapped in Chanukah wrap to put under the tree. That was who she was. She loved my daughter like she was her own. Whatever she bought for Alex she bought for shana. I will forever treasure all the amazing times we had together. Life will never be the same without her. She was a 2nd mother to my daughter. As I was to Alex. It's a huge loss to everyone that knew her. May she RIP. My deepest condolences to her beautiful daughter Victoria & Alex

“ I couldn't find the few photos I have of you, but they will always be embedded in my heart. You were always a friendly, loving & giving soul who welcomed us with open arms. Not five minutes after meeting you for the first time, I felt like we had been friends for a lifetime. Your life was snuffed out way too soon, but it makes me smile that Heaven has another bloom. We will look out for Victoria & Alex. You just have a wonderful life in Heaven until we meet again. Our sincere condolences to Victoria, Alex, John & all who loved you. Rest in peace. xoxoxox Stephen & Eileen Law Stewart
