LaRocca of Audubon, PA; his Aunts, Uncles, and Cousins in Yardley, PA, Berkeley, CA and Wellington, FL; his father's companion, Louise Lehman and his mother's companion, Ralph Carey. “ I find myself missing you all the time man, but I know you finally found peace. Whenever I think about you though I always find myself laughing. You were hilarious. One of the last times we saw each other me, you and your old man were playing street hockey on Cedar st. or at least we were trying to during intermissions while the Flyers were on. I'll never be able to watch the Flyers without thinking about you bud and that's definitely not a bad thing. They were a bunch of bums this year, but we'll get 'em next year. RIP and all my love to you and yours. I'll see you again one of these days, until then, go Flyers.

“ *When the siren's flash is gone
And we're left to carry on
All the memories are too few*

*When the pastor's music plays
And that casket rolls away
I could live again if you
Just stay alive for me*

*Please stay now, you've left me here alone
It's the end of the line
Please stay, I can't make it on my own
(Make it on my own)
It's the end of the line*

*Now that you are dead and gone
And I'm left to carry on
I could never smile 'cause you
Won't stay alive for me*

*Please stay now, you've left me here alone
It's the end of the line
Please stay, I can't make it on my own
(Make it on my own)
It's the end of the line*

*Finally, you find your resting day
Is without me
I weep and think of brighter days
What about me?*

*You can't take back the one mistake
That still lives on after life it takes
In that one day that changed our lives
And bitter memories are left behind*

*You can't take back the one mistake
That still lives on after life it takes
In that one day that changed our lives
And bitter memories are left behind*

*Please stay now, you've left me here alone
It's the end of the line
Please stay, I can't make it on my own
(Make it on my own)
It's the end of the line
Please stay now, you've left me here alone
It's the end of the line
Please stay, I can't make it on my own*

“On the night you were born, the moon smiled with such wonder that the Stars peeked in to see you and the night wind whispered, "life will never be the same.". Because there had never been anyone like you...ever in the world. So whenever you doubt just how special you are and you wonder who loves you, how much and how far, listen for the geese honking in the sky - they're singing a song to remember you by. Or notice the Bears asleep at the zoo. -it's because they've been dancing all night for you! Or drift off to sleep to the sound of the wind.- listen closely its whispering your name again! - Nancy Tillman
