“ My prayers are with the family. It is never enough time to have someone we love and cherish in our lives. Once they have left us the time passed seems so short of a period. Please take some comfort from the scriptures to realize that it is not God's purpose for us to live a short while and die. His purpose was for us to live forever on a Paradise earth. “ "Uncle Pat" McKenna, along with "Aunt Sadie", was a big part of my childhood. His memory looms large in my heart and intertwines with memories of my own father, Jack Reilly, as these two were not only coworkers at Eastern State, but more importantly, the best of friends. Uncle Pat was that rarest combination of men -- tough guy, tease, but most of all, a gentleman. He stood up for what he believed in and always offered a helping hand with a ready smile. He was willing to put his life on the line for those he loved. And how he loved Aunt Sadie. Together these two were shining examples of a happy marriage in their unerring commitment and devotion to one another. As parents they were committed to bringing up their children with a mixture of love, discipline and made no excuses for the decisions they made in their parenting. They wanted their kids to be happy, but insisted that they do the best they could and always have gratitude for the lives they had. Together, along with my father, Uncle Pat and Aunt Sadie will continue to be role models for lives lived to the fullest. They are sorely missed and will always be remembered and celebrated. RIP, Uncle Pat..with love, Eileen
