“ Dear Janet & Family, I was deeply saddened and shocked to read of Paul's passing. I just lost my father last July and understand the painf you are felling with your loss. Know that Paul, you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. Remember to share all the good memories of Paul with family and friends. It will help to get you through any sad and painful times ahead. I remember having many good times while we were all in the Chorus at SPX and the Musicale. Paul was always a gentleman. Losing someone you love is never easy, but the lasting memories will help to ease your loss. My thanks to Paul for serving our country. Sincerely, Michelle
