Paul H. Stiefel, husband of Linda Bush-Stiefel, lost his valiant fight with Esophageal cancer on Sunday, November 18, in the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. Born in Philadelphia, Paul was the son of Irene (Protz) and William Stiefel. He graduated from Northeast Catholic High School and Drexel University. He was a tax accountant for over thirty-five years in public and private practice. Paul spent much of the last ten years with the Owen J Roberts Adult Education Program. He loved to teach computer classes at the Adult Education Program and the Phoenixville Senior Center. Paul was partner with his wife in her love of crafting in Echoes of Elegance. He loved to do craft shows with her in what he termed 'transportation and sales'. He is survived by his wife of 16 years, Linda; son, Paul A., husband of Jennifer, West Chester, grandchildren, Jenna and Kayla Kearney, Palmyra, NJ, and was Uncle Paul to Javon Greenawalt. He will be sadly missed by his family and dear friends, Liz, Ed, Ellie, John, Thelma, Marty, Karen, Wil, and Gail and those who were fortunate enough to have had Paul touch their lives. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, William Stiefel. In honor of Paul's deep and loving concern for others and his giving nature, and thanks to Anna Crossgrove, all unused medical supplies will be donated to Open Hands Open Heart, Papua, New Guinea. No flowers please. If you wish to honor Paul, you can send any donations to Ellie Steigerwald, 1304 Weavertown Road, Douglassville, PA 19518. “ Paul was a wonderful man. I so enjoyed doing the craft fairs with both him and Linda. I always felt welcomed in their house as well no matter how bad he was feeling that day. He will be truly missed by many. My heart and prayers go out to Linda and his family. Linda and Paul had a wonderful relationship. I am so sorry that I will miss his services as I will be out of town. I am sure Paul is with the angels that hovered over him here on earth. God Bless. Marge

“ Paul, was my cousin, he always would stick up for me growing up when brother Billy and my brother Larry would pick on me, the only girl! We had many Sunday dinners at his house on Oreana Ave.. Summers in South Jersey were always fun. He was kind and generous. I know that he will be missed by all those who his life touched. Our condelences to you, Linda, Little Paul, and your families.
