“ Mrs. Gappa was a sweet and kind lady. She was very good to our family throughout the years. I especially remember her baked goods. They were so delicious. Every now and then I would run into her at a yard sale or flea market and she always had time to stop and chat. She's in a better place with those deceased in her family and all her old friends. May she rest in peace.

“ Mom you will be missed more than you know. We are so thankful that you went peacefully to be with God, the Angels, Dad, Jay, Sophie, all of your family and friends.....Your journey, joys, sadness and strife here on earth are through, but your life of Glory now begins. Dance that Polka with dad, then one with Jay and save one for us. You were loved by thousands, maybe even millions over your lifetime, but you will never be loved more than you are now.... We will miss you and would love to have you back with us again, but we know you are happier where you are now and we understand. So go dance.....With love and thanks for all of the times we were able to share.....Love you forever...Michelle, Sonny and Molly too!!

“ I miss you mom but I know that you are safe in the arms of the angels. I have been laying sleeping in front of your chair waiting for you to come home but I know that you are already home with God and he will take care of you and dad now. I will miss sleeping with you. I know that you won't be sitting there watching me have cat fights at the picture window with Moo Moo anymore, but I will continue to have them. You loved us all no matter what. Someday we will all be together again. I love you mom....MEOW.....
