“Pauline and Family, I can remember us as kids on high st. and riding around in your dads white station wagon. Or when we were outside and your mom would tell us to be quiet cause your dad was sleeping cause he had to go to work. I remember going to the shore, and most of all Princess. Your mom loved that dog, it was just like a person. My prayers are with you. Just remember she is at a much better place, and a happier one cause she is with her Johnnie. I can still see your dad with that cigar. God Bless all of you.
