

Perma A. Scortico

October 16, 1920 - February 26, 2015

Perma A. Scortico, 94, of Schwenksville, PA died on Thursday, February 26, 2015 at Greenfields Assisted Living Center. She was the wife of the late Carl J. Scortico.

She was born in Royersford to the late Robert and Carlton (Long) Bergstresser. She attended Royersford Schools and was employed for many years at Needleworks, Royersford and Valley Forge Flag Company, Spring City, PA. Mrs. Scortico was a member of Royersford Church of the Nazarene. She is survived by her children: Patricia Burns, widow of Joseph, of Pottstown; Doris Smythers, of Ft. McCoy, FL; Perma "Penny" Steed, wife of Robert, of Homestead, FL; Robert C. Scortico, husband of Deborah, of Winchendon, MA; sister: Doris Mock, wife of Robert, of Royersford; and 52 grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren. She was also predeceased by siblings: Sara Wildermuth, Betty Andrews, Robert Bergstresser and Henry Bergstresser.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Perma Scortico Memorial Fund, c/o Customers Bank, 99 Bridge St. Phoenixville, PA 19460. Online condolences may be offered at www.royersfordfuneralhome.com.

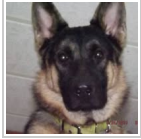

Arrangements are by Cattermole-Klotzbach Funeral Home, Royersford, PA.

“ WOW, Just found out about Perma's passing! So sorry for your loss, I remember the good times we had when she went out to the farm and camped out in the carport with Sherri and Michelle. We kept in touch with her through the mail and wondered why we haven't heard from her lately. She will be missed!

“ She used to tell me about the house she was born in. Sometimes, before she went to the nursing home, we would walk by it as we went to by ice cream at Nelson's. That was also before it was torn down to build a drug store. Now they're both gone...
