“ On behalf of the Caccese family, we extend our condolences. I remember young Philip from when we visited Cousin Mike and Helen at Wynnewood. Our family also grew up in Wynnewood and I can remember visiting and having dinner at their house.

Uncle Con Kruse informed us about Philip today. May he Rest In Peace.

“ Dear Michael, Janet, Stephen and Susan,

Please accept my deepest sympathy in the passing of your brother, Philip. I found out about it just today.

I did not know Philip very well, he was so very shy. But I do remember how all of you looked out for him and cared for his needs. You are loving siblings.

I know he is with your parents now, safe and happy to see them.

Losing a sibling is terribly sad and painful, but in time, you will get past the ache and remember only the positive things about your brother.

My love to each of you, you are all in m prayers.

love, cousin Susan Centrella (of uncle Louie)

“ The one thing I loved to watch was how Michael always took care of his little brother. Never complained and always looked forward to going to visit. Even when he wasn’t able to drive he hired people or his children or wife would take him to see Philip. They always had a good conversation or enjoyed sitting in peace and quiet together. You will be missed Philip. Rest easy with your parents and my mom.

“ I always enjoyed talking Baseball with Philip, especially Phillies Baseball. Our conversations would include spring training predictions, player evaluations, free agent signings, and memories of the 1980 and 2008 Championship Team. I will miss our conversations.....Michael Boland.
