“ Worked many years with Phil and his passion for his fellow workers was admirable. He had a great personality and I enjoyed so many conversations with him. He was missed when he left the power plant and will be missed even more now. His memory will live on in many of us that were privileged to know and work with him. Rest in peace

A lot of humor mentioned here. That's what was unleashed from both of us the 1st time we met. Never a dull moment. Always a positive optimist. Joke competition every time we met. God must have needed him at this time more than we did is my guess. Too soon to leave here.
