“ Dear Ron, Laura, Amanda and Ron, Your dear Phyllis, a very lovely lady. I first met her when I was bringing Bud Trumbauer to church prior to his passing. She made me feel so welcome. I remember she was very involved in several ministries at Pughtown, especially the Christmas Shoe Box ministry that she and Amanda chaired. I feel blessed I got to know her. The picture you chose for her obit is a reminder of her lively eyes and lovely smile. My deepest sympathy to each of you. Remember the good times you had with her. God's Peace and Blessings during this difficult time. Maggie Shaner

My condolences to all the family. Phyllis and I shared many many laughs when we were in high school together. She was in just about all my classes and there and at lunch we laughed a-lot. I'm sure she carried that same fun personality all through life. It's funny after 54 years there are just certain people you can really remember in High School. Phyllis was one ❤️
