“ Ray and Ruth, My heartfelt sympathesies go out to you, your family and especially Scott's siblings. Losing a child is always hard for parents but to have two of your children taken to God at such young ages is hard to bear. One can never fully understand God's actions, but I take some small solace in an expression from the Bble: "The good die young". I have only a few, but very pleasant recollections of Scott, the last being a dinner at North Shore where I was privileged to sit with him at the family table.
