

Randy Austin

May 20, 1962 - April 26, 2012

Randy Austin, 49, of Lower Pottsgrove, passed away from a sudden illness on Thursday, April 26, 2012 at Pottstown Memorial Medical Center. He was the husband of Janet L. (Manley) Austin. He was born in Pottstown to Charles A. and E.J. (Slifer) Austin, of Perkiomenville. After graduating from Perkiomen Valley High School, he became a route salesman for Stroehmann Bread. Among his interests, Randy was an avid Steelers and Flyers fan. In addition to his wife and parents, he is survived by his sons: Charles Scott and Bryan Matthew, both at home; sister: Tracy Lynn Carter and her husband Tim, of Monroe, GA; very close friend and cousin, Dale Austin and wife Lori, of Royersford and nieces and nephews. A memorial service will be held on Thursday, May 3, 2012 at 11 AM at Cattermole-Klotzbach Funeral Home, 600 Washington St. Royersford, PA. Officiating will be Rev. David M. Lewis. Friends may call from 10-11 AM. Burial will be in Limerick Garden of Memories. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his memory to the Randy Austin Memorial Fund (for his children), c/o National Penn Bank, 702 S. Main St. Phoenixville, PA 19460. “ My deepest condolences to the wife, parents, children, extended family and loved ones of Mr. Randy Austin. It is especially hard to cope with the loss of a spouse, child, and parent. The Bible promises us that God will sustain us at times like this. - Psalm 55:22. I encourage all of you to draw close to Him at this most difficult time. May you have confidence in the promise of the resurrection and the hope of Psalm 37:29 where it says, "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it." Yes the Bible promises us that our loved ones will live again, here on a restored paradise earth! May we do all that we can to be there to greet our loved ones upon their return. The Bible tells us how. I encourage you to investigate God's true promises for us all. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com
