“ To the Family, it is very hard at this time to express my grief for your loss. At a time like this we can only pray that you can remember the wonderful times you shared together. Although he is gone I am sure he will not be forgotten. Remember that Jehovah God keeps all of us in his memory for when he grants us life in an earth no longer filled with sickness or death. These are the things he has promised and will be able to do. (1 Cor. 15:26; 2 Peter 3:9; Rev 21:4; Matt 6:9,10) C. Smith
