“ Some of my earliest and fondest of visiting family in PA are of staying with Aunt Reda and Uncle John, who made me feel at home no matter how many years had passed between visits. I'll always remember her smile greeting me at their door, all the yummy food, and the pink mints in the jar by the door to the porch, where my mom loved to sit with Aunt Reda for hours. I'll be missing that smile the next trip I make out to PA.

“ Uncle John, Scott, Melanie, Lisa and families,

Aunt Reda holds a special place in my heart. I will always remember the good times we shared at family reunions, camping, weekends at the hunting cabin and shopping. One of our favorite places to share was the front porch swing with a glass of her famous iced tea. Whenever we were together there was always much love and laughter. I wish her peace as she rests with the Lord. And I wish all of you peace and love.

“ Dear Uncle John, Scott, Melanie, Lisa and families,

Although death separates us from one another in body, in spirit Aunt Reda remains alive in our hearts, in our fond memories and in our prayers. I pray that your many wonderful memories of her bring you both peace and joy.

Love and sympathy,

Lynda
