“ To Pat and the entire Mallatratt family - Of course I was very sad to hear of your Dad's passing. I remember fondly, while serving on vestry at Epiphany, working with him to clean-up and revamp the 'Christmas closet(s)'... The results of which have made the 'Greening' of the church much easier and more efficient. I remember both Dick and Ginny as so active and integral part of the church family. They are both so missed, but now together in glory.

“ I was so saddened to hear of Don's passing. I was his caregiver the last 4 months at Springmill Senior Living. I had the pleasure of having several lunches and walks after with Don. I will miss him and I know he is resting in peace.
