“ I can't believe you're gone. I can't believe I'll never see that smile again. I so wanted to sing with you again. Maybe in the next life, my dear friend. We ALL loved you so much. Rest in peace.

I have a difficult time believing you're gone too, Bobby!

You, Robert and I go back to "Christopher's" on the Main Line; "The Thirsty Camel" in West Chester; and finally, the Denny's in West Chester (which I believe is still an Applebee's). We used to karaoke all night! A few times, we got the Denny's crowd singing!

I am glad that you and my parents met. You were a tremendous source of strength and support for my mother and the "Unique 4 Plus". I have MANY photos of those awesome days in my online album.

You will definitely be sorely missed by all who came into contact with you.
