“ Robert, Dalyn and I went to Cleveland and Canton many moons ago. We had the best vacation. We saw the Indians play, went to the Rock and Roll HOF as well and visited the Football HOF. It was truly amazing!

“ Rob was definitely a people's person. He was well respected by those in his presence. He was comical and had a great heart to care for others. No matter how tired Rob was, it never stopped him from going to work. Rob will be missed and many ways especially that fine wine that was purchased for my house warming. Love you Bro.

“ My heart is heavy with sadness for the loss of Robert - and a huge loss it is! He has touched so many lives with his love, caring and good humor. We shared a love of art and music - days spent looking and talking about paintings and artists - often while listening to Pink Floyd. He reached out to the men and boys he cared for at work - and truly hoped to influence and change them through art and a special attention they may never have experienced before in their lives. Robert's art - his silliness - and his love - have touched us all - and will be with us forever. Good bye for now my buddy, brother and forever friend. Peace and love, Betsi

“ I shall remember Robert with fondness as a colleague and friend. During the past few years he would visit me in my office to talk. We did talk about a number of things, but always covered his present health status. Robert was always direct about this and showed courage and humility, I shall miss our talks my friend.

“ Robert worked in my classroom with a student as a 1:1. He always had kind words and thoughts to share and was willing to go the extra mile to help with anything. I was so saddened when I heard that cancer robbed him of further life here with those who love him... Please know, you will be in my prayers. He will be missed.
