“ *Gail -
I am on PTO and would have never known had it not been for Jill calling me personally last night to tell me - a great shock & sadness came over me - as just 2 days before, I had met Bob for the first time and had a very nice conversation with him. He was telling me how good he felt - I was telling him how great he looked - and to my surprise, he told me he had driven to MD from PA. His passing has affected me deeply as I knew you were going through the same scenario I did with my Dad 8 years ago.
I had a dream about you last night Gail - I am so very saddened by this - and hope and pray that with the strength of your faith and family, time will ease this feeling of such great loss. You're in my thoughts and prayers.*

My deepest sympathies to you and your family with Bob's passing. I can't imagine the shock you are experiencing and hope you know that you have so many people here for you. I had the most lovely conversation with Bob on Wednesday in Baltimore and am so blessed to have known him. My thoughts are with you, your children, and grandchildren at this time.
