“ *Dear cousins Gerry, Patsy, Kenny, Margaret, Jeannette, Ron, children, family, and friends:
I am thinking of you and share your sadness in the passing of Robbie.
One of my fondest memories of our shared childhood was playing hide and seek “he’s down the house”. Robbie was always kind and gentle with me and had that wonderful big smile.
Sometimes when Anthony and I were sitting on the floor in front of that huge wooden radio/record player, Robbie would quietly sit there with us.
At times, when the rest of us is were up in the attic, Robbie would be downstairs sitting in the tv sunroom content to be by himself.
When asked if he was ok, he would simply grin and say “yes I’m ok”.
Fondly and sincerely,
Your cousin, Alexis Loiette and children, Leeannwyn, Rebecca, Patrick and Ryan.
Be well.*
