“ I loved him so much. He was a “bother” in early life, and a best friend and brother as i got older. i sleep with a photo of us near me. I live in Australia now- and did when he passed. I’m still devastated. sorry for making a goofy face. he was my best friend from and brother from another mother since I was a child.I think of him all of the time.

“ I only learned yesterday, August 23, 2022, of Bob's passing. My condolence to the family is late but no less sincere. The people who could have shared this news with me didn't. I hope Bob has found peace.

“ My name is Ed Eselby and I worked with Bob at Canteen for a number of years. We got together off and on to shoot pool at Tom's Bar and darts at his place. Needless to say he pretty much kicked my butt every time. We also enjoyed watching Flyers games at his place as well. We also caught a few concerts together. Australian Pink Floyd with Chris Hickman and probably one of my best memories Roger Waters performance of The Wall at Citizens Bank Park. Bob is a great guy and I am shocked at his passing and will miss him.
