“ I could say so much but I don't know where to begin. You were a person with a huge heart. You never didn't have anything to say and you were always quick with your witty comebacks. We have so many memories to wrestling at gams old house , to you teaching youth group, to our family dinners. I'll miss all our Sunday night dinner conversations to you making gam mad or to us all just sitting around listening to you tell stories with my dad from when you both were little like the time you pulled gams underwear up over her head. Your laugh is something that will be missed. I'll miss you picking on me for being super special Sam or sssam as we like to call it. I will miss your check in texts or just our political worldly conversations. I know you are up there watching over all of us. Please don't pick on gam to much up there. She might kick your butt now. Just remember de Nile isn't just a river in Egypt.
