“ I grew up with Robert Gunther, he lived on shellbay,in the " toll house ".I lived a block away on rt. 9. We went to the same school, and many times I visited his house. I lost track of Robert, and recently learned of his passing. Rest easy brother.

“ Robert was the most precious person. The most wonderful husband and father ever. He was committed, I believe in this lifetime, to loving every human in it. I am so blessed that he married my sister, Cindie, and that I could have his brilliant energy in my life. Loving you always Robert, until we meet again, Bonnie
