“ I never write my thoughts on these condolence sites although I often read them. For dear Bobby, I will finally make an exception Bob was the best we find in this sometimes too serious world. He had a way to always make you laugh and feel good about yourself. The best thing about the reunions was the chance to reconnect after a long absence of Bob in my life. Growing up, I remember many times Bob made us laugh as children when laughter was a much needed gift. I know the pain must seem almost unbearable for Barb, the children, and grandchildren but I hope there is some comfort in knowing what a terrific husband, dad, and grandfather you had! I am so grateful that Bobby Kelsch was my cousin. Truly a bright star in the heavens....and one that I am sure twinkles with laughter every day.

“ Fare thee well, gentle and jovial spirit. Fare thee well, Uncle Bob. We miss you already but you will live in our hearts forever. To our family who is suffering with this loss, our hearts go out to you. We recognized the greatness in your husband, your father, your sibling, your grandfather - we know those that meet him in his eternal life will welcome him and see him in that same light. While it can't replace the physical presence of the man, please know that we are here for you and thinking of you always. Love - Mike, 'Neat', Cooper & Emma
