

Roberta J. Nall

May 4, 1936 - January 18, 2025

Roberta Joan Nall, aged 88, wife of John Nall of Royersford, Pennsylvania, passed away on Saturday, January 18, 2025. Born in Shenandoah, she was the daughter of Dorothy (Gibson) and Robert Jefferson. She grew up in the Alleghany West area of Philadelphia and Graduated Dobbins HS in 1954.

For many years she worked as a secretary while raising her oldest daughter in Philadelphia. On 7/11/1970 she married John Nall and spent several years as a homemaker while raising her youngest daughter. During this time she enjoyed volunteering at the Royersford Library and with her Church. Roberta was a member of Trinity E.C. Church where she volunteered as a Sunday School teacher in the toddler room. Roberta loved children, being around family and friends, music, and laughter. Roberta began working in the Sacred Heart cafeteria in the mid 80s. She spent many years laughing there and enjoyed her coworkers immensely. She worked at ICS for a number of years as the receptionist at ICS in Audubon. She was loved by all there and had many happy years joking and laughing with her coworkers. She later worked at Kohl's in Royersford where she stayed until she retired. Roberta loved making people smile and always exuded love and kindness, so she fit into most work settings with ease.

She enjoyed bowling & bowled in a bowling league at Limerick Bowl. Her husband describes her as, "a lovely person, true Christian woman, a great wife, and mother." Her daughters feel blessed to have been raised by such a caring woman who encouraged them to be their true selves, all with a dash of wit.

She is survived by her loving Husband John Nall, her daughters Deborah Rose, Faith Bathey, and four grandsons: Benjamin, Dylan, John, and Beau, her brother-in-Law Joseph Nall Sr., nephew Joseph Nall Jr., niece Lisa Balistrier and her two daughters Angela, and Katy, nephew Bruce Nall, father of Tanya, Joseph, Patrick. She was preceded in death by Robert Jefferson (Father), Dorothy Jefferson (Mother), Dorothy Hare (sister) and John Hare (brother in law)

“ Roberta was a true "people" person ...I met her when we both worked at ICS. Roberta was the receptionist and the voice of ICS. She welcomed all with a pleasant, genuine greeting and she was a favorite among the staff. Quick with a smile and always ready to laugh, Roberta was a wonderfully kind person who took an interest in all. I have so many great memories, both at ICS and outside of ICS as she was like a second Mom to me. I am grateful for the love and friendship she gave to me. Go in peace, Roberta, you'll be missed!

Love, Lora
