“ Today my heart is aching for the entire Andrules clan. Robin just always had a smile that just lit up a room. I am so very sorry for your loss. A mom gone too soon, a wife who loved her man, a sister no longer there to lean on, and a daughter passing before her parents, life can just be so unfair at times.

My heart and my prayers are with you all. I know how much she will be missed. The tears just flowed this morning when I read the morning paper. May God grant you all the grace of acceptance and in time the grace of peace. There is so much we do not get to understand in this lifetime. All we can do is let the tears flow and hold dearly to the memories of your sweet Robin.

*With Love to you all,
Tom Staverosky*
