“ Kathryn, I was fortunate enough to meet and work with both of you at the Diamond Glass during a few summers in the late 1960's. Your father and my father, Edgar William Toepel were good friends and co-workers at the Diamond Glass. I am not sure how I came across this page, but I was glad to see your father lived a long life. edgara.toepel@gmail.com

“ Dear Kathryn,
You do not know me, but I worked with your Dad at Diamond Glass. I was young then, in my 30"s, very new to the office type job. I typed your Dad's purchase orders, and he was so patient and beyond kind to me always.
He reminded me so very much of my Dad who died when I was only 27. They were both little short guys with hearts of gold.
Some people leave a good feeling in your heart long after you stop seeing them.
I am sorry that he's gone, he made this world a better place.

My Deepest Sympathy To You,
Judy Torrens-Cogdill
