“ Nancy and family, thank you for sharing so many beautiful and happy memories of your life with Ron. There is no doubt, as seen in the photos how much he loved you all and the feeling was mutual. He also was very proud of his Polish History and Ron or Aunt Jean sent me a subscription to the Polish American paper and Ron pointed articles to make sure I read. I still remember Ron standing on Aunt Jeans kitchen table trying to fix the ceiling fan and complaining about the wiring system that didn't seem to work right in the Cheltenham home that he found to be quite frustrating, and he was determined to get it to work.
